ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Hello, my name is Frank Gonzalez. For 22 years of my life I was someone who believed that as soon as you die, your existence was eternally over. All that changed in 1991 when I was alone at my apartment and had a spiritual experience that convinced me that God was real. I became a born again Christian, and then a few weeks later I had another spiritual experience when I woke up laying on top of my bed with my hands raised to the sky praying out loud. This event strengthened my faith and resulted in my strong desire to learn God's word.

In 1995 I started studying in a Bible Institute. After graduating three years later, I spent several years teaching at two Spanish Bible Institutes.

I have always had a strong desire to understand Bible prophecy, but I found it hard to understand. As I searched within books for help, I found that most of them avoided interpreting the difficult prophecies. Some claimed to explain the Book of Revelation verse by verse, yet they would never commit to anything. The fact is that they were not very helpful. I realized that it was easier for me to study the Bible by itself.

In March of 2005, Pastor Alvaro Navarro requested that I teach the Book of Revelation in his church, and I accepted. When my sister Aurora found out what I was teaching, she wanted to learn more too. Unfortunately she lived far away, so I started to make an audio CD of my teachings for her. After a couple of weeks of struggling to make the audio recordings, I realized that I should probably write down what I wanted to say prior to recording it. As I tried to explain the book of Revelation verse by verse, I concluded that it would be much easier if I would explain each event one after the other in chronological order. I asked my wife Alma for advice on this, and she said "if you're going to really do this, do it right and finish it." So I took her advice and focused on this 215 page book in which I explain most of the Bible prophecies based in the Book of Revelation, combining them all in chronological order.

This book is free for download or you can purchase the printed copy for materials and printing cost only. I do not make any royalties on the book because I am already rich since my Father owns everything. This book helps those who are serious about learning God's awesome prophecies since you can read from each event to the next.

I pray that this book will bring glory to God by helping Christians to become stronger in their faith and that those that don't believe in God will read it and accept Jesus as their Savior.
